ALLEGED VIOLATIONS

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation No.   Nature of Noncompliance

1.                    The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance:

On January 21, 2014, in Davidson County, Tennessee, Mr. Armstrong was stopped by the Metropolitan Police Department, and was cited for driving on a revoked license (Citation Number SCE132562). According to the citation, Mr. Armstrong was stopped for running a stop sign. Upon investigation, it was learned that Mr. Armstrong's license was revoked. Mr. Armstrong had no failures to appear, failures to be booked, or warrants, and therefore, qualified for a state citation. He has a booking date of February 14, 2014.

On January 22, 2014, Mr. Armstrong contacted this officer and advised he had been cited the previous day for driving on a revoked license and provided a copy of the citation. Mr. Armstrong was reminded of the conditions of his release that prohibit him from committing any federal, state, or local crimes.

Compliance with Supervision Conditions and Prior Interventions:

John Edward Armstrong is a resident of Davidson County, Tennessee, and has been under the federal supervision of the U.S. Probation Office since September 24, 2013. He is employed with Southern Steak & Oyster, Nashville, Tennessee. He lives with his daughter and grandchildren in Nashville, Tennessee. The probation officer completes frequent surprise home visits at the offender's residence.

U.S. Probation Officer Recommendation:

The probation officer respectfully recommends the offender be continued on supervised release and that the new violation be handled in Davidson County General Sessions Court. The state court will likely impose an appropriate sentence should Mr. Armstrong be adjudicated guilty of the charges.

The U. S. Attorney's Office has been advised of the offender's noncompliance.
